Reading comp.	B2	Has no problem understanding basic English texts.
Writing skills	B1	He's able to get his message across in short, simple and usually coherent sentences.
Grammar	A2	Stays in "comfort zone" of present simple and progressive. Makes many mistakes. Grammar is currently his biggest challenge.
Vocabulary	B2	Relatively strong vocabulary, because he resides in the US. There are many phrases that he understands passively , but doesn't use actively.
Conversation	B2	He gets his point across and has no problem understanding the other side. On the other hand, I'd be uncomfortable having him conduct business meetings in English, due to embarrassing grammatical mistakes.
Pronunciation	-	Not a problem.
Confidence/fluency	B1
Overall	B1
